[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] PETERSBURG, VA., April 26 .- This bright, beautiful day was signalized by five marriages in this city, and if there be truth in the adage "Blessed is the bride that the sun shines on" the marriages will be happy ones.

At noon, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. Victor C. Nunnally, a popular young merchant, was married to Miss Annie Rives, the charming daughter of Mr. James A. Blick, Rev. J. E. Tillery offi-ciating. The bride was becomingly at-tired in a Nile-green crope de rett, en brain, triumed with olive velvet and jewels, with hat to match. After receiving the cordial congratulations of the assembled friends the couple left on the 143 P. M. train for the West on their bridal tour.

MORRISON—BAINER.

At 4:30 P. M., at the residence of the bride's parents, on west High street, Rev. H. C. Cheatham officiating, Mr. G. Stanley Morrison was married to Miss Sallie W. Barner, daughter of Mr. Joseph W. Barner. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate families of the couple being present. The bride is a very pretty and accomplished young lady, and enjoys the acquaintance of a large circle of warm friends. The groom is one of the most popular young men in the city, and has for years held the position of private secretary of the S. W. Venable Tobacco Company.

FRISHT—TENCH. MORRISON -BARNESS.

At 8 o'clock P. M., at the residence of the bride, on Bank street, Captain James Frisby, of North Carolma, and Miss Joste Tench, daughter of Mr. Joseph T. Tench, were united in marriage by Rev. H. C. Cheatham. A reception followed, The couple will remain here until Thursday, when they will leave for their home in the Old North State. FRISHT-TENCH.

The Salvation-Army Hall, on Hinton street, was filled to night to witness what was termed "A Halleiujah Marriage." The contracting parties were Mr. W. R. Moss, of Wilmington, Del., a member of the Salvation Army, and Miss Betty Moore, of Petersburg. The interesting ceremony was performed by Mrs. Major French and Ensign Herron, of Baltimore, assisted by Rev. H. C. Cheatham, of the Market-Street Methodist Episcopal church. The charge of an admission fee of ten cents per head, to pay the interest on the mortgage on the hall, did not aliay interest in the event. A HALLELUJAH MAERIAGE. GILLIAM-JOHNSON.

At 3 o'clock P. M., at the residence of the bride, on Market street, by the Rev. W. W. Lear, Mr. J. L. Gilliam, a promi-nent farmer of Sussex county, was mar-ried to Miss U. T. Johnson. The waiters were Mr. C. W. Jones and Miss Fanne Dyson and Mr. George T. Partridge, of Sussex, and Miss Ida Browder. The cou-ple left for home on the fast matl. Portsmouth's Beautiful Wedding.

Norfole, Va., April 22.—This morning Frimty Protestant Episcopal church, in Portsmouth, was the scene of a beautiful early-morning wedding, the church being handsomely decorated for the occasion.
The marriage was that of Miss Caroline Foreman, the popular leader of Trinity choir, daughter of Captain John Foreman, and Mr. Basil Lohman Meades, of Fortsmouth. The bride was attired in a green travelling suit and the groom in a black cutaway and lavender trousers. Immediately after the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. E. W. Forsyth, the couple CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., April 26.—Quite a ripple of excitement was occasioned among the young people yesterday when it was learned that Mr. A. V. Conway, a popular young merchant of Charlottesville, of the firm of Huyett & Conway, and Miss Fannie Eubank, daughter of the Rev. Mr. Eubank, of Bedford county, formerly of this piace, had gone to Washington for the purpose of being made one in name as they were already in affection. They were married yesterday and a telegram from the young groom states that he and his bride will arrive here to-morrow. Miss Eubank was a teacher in the Albemarle Female Institute, and is a beautiful and accomplished young lady. Their friends wish them much hap-

MISS RANDOLPH'S FUNERAL TO-DAY

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

Charlottesville, Va., April 26.—The remains of Miss Sarah U. Randolph will arrive from Baltimore to-morrow, and the funeral will take place from the Episcopal church at had-past 3 Wednesday afternoos.

The two horses hitched to the buggy of Mr. T.
E. Powers, a merchant of Whitchall, in this county, in which he and his wife were seated, took fright on west Main street yesterday afternoon and ran away, throwing both Mr. and Mrs. Fowers out of the venicle. Mr. Powers was so severely highed that he had to be left here. Mrs. Powers was also considerably bruised.

Painweil accident.

Powers was also considerably bruised.

Stephen Whitlow, a workman in the Loomis factory, met with a painful accident yesterday—that of running a sharp stick entirely through one of his hands.

Information has been received of the burning of the dwelling-house, barn, stables, and cornhouse belonging to hir. John H. Burton, near Free Union, this county, together with all his hay, fodder, a large quantity of corn, harness—in fact, all the contents of the houses named except two horses. The scent of kerosone was noticed, indicating the work of an incendiary.

An adjourned meeting of the West-Hanover Presbytery was held in this city yesterday. The pastoral relations between the Rev. H. W. Carter and the South-Plains and the Scottsville churches were dissolved by consent of the presbytery, and at Mr. Carter's request he was dismissed to Chesapeake Presbytery. The Hon. R. H. Cardwell had found in Richmond a record of Virginia bonds placed to the credit of certain gentlemen in trust for West-Hanover Presbytery. All of these trustees, except Dr. R. L. Dabney, now of Texas, are 'dead, and the presbytery substituted for the decoased members Colonel J. P. Fliggerall and Mr. O. T. Wicker, of Farmille and Dr. Mellwaine, of Hampden-Sidney, and requested them to take charge of the fund. The bends are worth over 3500, and it is believed that all knowledge of them had been lost. The quarterly election of officers of Charlottesville Losigs, No. 482, L. O. G. T., took place last night. W. A. Irving, canef templar; Muss Lula Dillard, vice-templar; J. V. Perley, troasurer; S. L. Jackson, thannial servetary; Roy Carler, recording secretary; W. S. Stutz, chaplain; E. T. Lane, marshai; W. C. Crump—An Act Wortby of a Medal.
Cone's Island, VA., April 24.—One of the most gallant acts of life-saving I have ever seen happened here to-day. Joinnie Mathews, aged 7 years, and Joe Crump, aged 10, were sculling about in the channel
here in separate boats, and Joe Crump accidentally fell overboard. John was some distance from Joe and, instead of crying for help, as almost every boy would have done, he coolly and deliberately sculled as rapidly as possible to Joe's assistance, and reached him just in time to save him from his last sinking. John was not strong enough to pull Joe in the boat, to told him to hold fast white John sculled the boat to shore.
Had it was been for the presence of wind of Cramp-An Act Worthy of a Medal.

John, Joe been for the presence of mind of John, Joe would certainly have found a watery grave. This act was witnessed by several of the life-saving crew, and they all say that no man could have done more than John did. Think of that for a boy 7 years old. In four years experience as a surfrain I have never seen a deed more worthy of a medal than this other.

AN OLD QUESTION REVIVED.

Run Its Track Across the Bridge?

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

DANVILLE, VA., Abril 26.—The primary slection takes place on Thursday, and the canvass is warm and lively. A new question has recently been sprung, and will enter as a material lesue into the election of councilment. This is the question of allowing the North Danville Street-Car Company to run its track across the iron bridge which spans Dangiver. Some people are willing to slow the privilege upon certain conditions, but many others are bitterly opposed to it, and will inghi asy candidate for the Council who favors the measure. This is an old question. It came up more than a year ago, and was vigorously pushed before the Council, but was defeated. ANOTHER ISSUE.

Another question which is agitating the peo11 is that of city water. The Council recently adopted the metre system, and a few metres have already been put in, so that one class of patrons now pay by the measure, while others pay a specific sum and use water ad ith. The metre patrons are vicorously kicking against what they claim are excessive charges, and demand a reduction in price. The entire city will be metred eventually, and when that is done it is believed the water reuts will be materially decreased.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 20.—Although the House has not yet passed the river and harbor bill the Senate Commerce Committee have practically gone over the measure and to-day Senator Frye notified Senators Borbour and Daniel that the committee had decided that the appropriations for Virginia waterware would have to be cut down to be cent. The senators will confer is-morrow with the Virginia representatives to see what is the best policy to be pursued. This is rather a peruliar action for the Senate committee to take my river and harbor matters, as they have herefore been very liberal toward the waterways.

What is Scrofula

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or awellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which developes ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing bilindness or deafness; which is the erigin of pimples, cancerous growths, or many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors." it is a more formidable enemy than consumption or cancer alone, for scrofula combines the worst possible features of both. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How can it be cured? By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. For all affections of the blood Hood's Sarsaparilla is unequalled, and some of the cures it has effected are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula in any of its various forms, be sure to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial.
